2011 Monty Alexander Jazz Festival Partners with Area Restaurants: Dave Robinson Trio Returns!

On Labor Day weekend, the 2011 Monty Alexander Jazz Festival is partnering with area restaurants to offer discounted meals to Festival ticket holders, along with a lunchtime live jazz performance in the Tidewater Inn's Hunters' Tavern. On Saturday, September 3, 2011, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:15 p.m., The Dave Robinson Trio will return to Easton to provide New Orleans Jazz during lunch on the Tavern's terrace. Festival ticket holders will receive 10 percent off the normal cost of their meal. Ticketholders will also receive a 10 percent discount on the Tavern's brunch on Sunday, September 4, 2011. In addition, the Tidewater Inn is offering a special weekend package for a two-night stay during the Festival.

Additional restaurant offerings for 2011 Jazz Festival ticketholders during the Festival weekend include the Peacock Restaurant & Lounge at 202 Dover offering a complimentary glass of wine with any three-course dinner and Out of the Fire offering a complimentary glass of wine or dessert with lunch or dinner.

The restaurant partnerships compliment the world class jazz performances at the Avalon Theatre in Easton on both Friday and Saturday. The Festival weekend kicks off on Friday, September 2 at 7 p.m. with a magical duo: trumpet player Dominick Farinacci and pianist Aaron Diehl, two recent graduates of the Juilliard's Jazz Studies program. Following Farinacci and Diehl will be the Grace Kelly Quintet, featuring the amazing alto saxophonist, Grace Kelly, hailed as a rising star throughout the jazz world.

The Festival will also host a "Salute to Charlie Byrd" on Saturday, September 3, 2011 at 4 p.m., including multi-talented American jazz guitarist-composer-producer and international recording and touring artist Nate Najar, collaborating with accomplished vibraphonist and drummer Chuck Redd and his ensemble. Renowned jazz pianist Monty Alexander, the Festival's artistic director and namesake, will return to take the stage with his Quartet on Saturday, September 3 at 8 p.m. For the last two years Monty Alexander has played to standing ovations at the Avalon, and this year promises to be no exception.

The Monty Alexander Jazz Festival is presented by Jazz on the Chesapeake, a program of Chesapeake Chamber Music, dedicated to promoting jazz in the Chesapeake region.

The Festival is generously underwritten by Verizon, with additional support from numerous business and private sponsors. Individual tickets and Festival passes can be purchased online at ChesapeakeChamberMusic.org/jazz or by calling the Chesapeake Chamber Music office at 410-819-0380. Student tickets are also available. For further information about Jazz on the Chesapeake, visit ChesapeakeChamberMusic.org/jazz, call the CCM office at 410-819-0380 or visit the Jazz on the Chesapeake Facebook page .
