

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
FEBRUARY 21, 2011

CONTACT: Don Buxton 410 819-0380
or Lin Clineburg 410 745-0025

Chesapeake Chamber Music and "All About Jazz" Concert Brings Mardi Gras to Easton

EASTON, MD – On Saturday, March 5, 2011, at 6 p.m. a bit of Mardi Gras will come to the Shore with Chesapeake Chamber Music's (CCM) "All About Jazz" concert at the Avalon Theatre in Easton, featuring jazz pianist John Royen. Royen has been associated with New Orleans Preservation Hall Jazz Band for many years and is famous for his stride piano jazz style. The concert is part of the CCM annual gala. Tickets for the concert and remarks on the history of music from Ragtime to Jazz are $25 each and are available through the CCM web site www.chesapeakechambermusic.org or by calling the CCM office at 410-819-0380. The event, generously supported by Wye Financial and Trust and Benson and Mangold Realtors, will open the twenty- sixth CCM season. Chesapeake Chamber Music is known throughout the region as a premier organization bringing the best of chamber music, artists and events to the area each year.

CUTLINE: John Royen, jazz pianist, will perform a concert, "All About Jazz," at the Chesapeake Chamber Music Gala on March 5, 2011 at 6 p.m. Royen has been associated with New Orleans Preservation Hall Jazz Band for many years and is famous for his stride piano jazz style. Tickets to the concert are $25 each.

